

Katie Rodriguez Banister
President, Access-4-All, Inc.

www.Access-4-All.com

Mrs. Katie Rodriguez Banister survived an auto accident in 1990 that left her a quadriplegic, paralyzed from the chest down. After six months of rehabilitation and fifteen months of living with her parents, she returned to living independently in 1992.

Katie worked with the city of Webster Groves, MO for five years as the Access Coordinator. Katie's work experience prior to her accident includes: Latch-Key Director, Sales Representative for Pitney-Bowes, Social Director for Lodge of the Four Seasons.

With her husband, Steve the two co-founded Access-4-All, Inc. with a mission to educate and empower others through motivational speaking and disability education.

As a person who gives back to her community, Katie has been a member of the Recreation Council of Greater St. Louis Board of Directors since 1992 and served as President from 1997-2001 and board member of Life Skills. Katie was a performer and founding member with St. Louis' "DisAbility Project" for six years. She served as a board member and President of the Delta Center for Independent Living from 1996-2002 and board member of the VSA Arts of MO from 1996-2000. She co-produced her own motivational video "Change Takes Time."

Katie's honors include 2001 St. Louis Woman of Achievement; Missouri Jaycees 1998 Ten Outstanding Young Missourians; St. Louis Jaycees Jr. Chamber of Commerce 1995 Ten Outstanding Young St. Louisans; MO Governor's Council on Disability 1993 Advocate of the Year; Central MO State University Outstanding Freshman in the Department of Recreation 1983-84, and Kirkwood MO Jr. Miss 1982.

Katie is a dynamic speaker, author and consultant. (314) 481-0633

Website is www.access-4-all.com

Katie Rodriguez Banister is a woman on wheels whose paralysis turned out to be a blessing. It took her wheelchair to find and marry her husband Steve. Katie is an advocate and mentor in the disability culture with a mission to educate and empower others. Katie grew up in St. Louis and lived in many different places before returning to again live in the shadows of The Gateway Arch. Katie is a poet, actor, artist and a friend to many.

Katie has authored:

"Aunt Katie's Visit," (2003) an educational book for children, which has equally been enjoyed by parents, teachers and librarians.

"The Personal Care Attendant Guide," (2007) Demos Medical Publishing, a how-to guide on caregiving; ways to find and how to be a good caregiver.

"A Pocket of Poems and How to Write Your Own" (2008) to encourage and teach young adults to write poetry as a coping mechanism.

Katie Rodriguez Banister
President, Access-4-All, Inc.

Mrs. Katie Rodriguez Banister survived an auto accident in 1990 that left her a quadriplegic, paralyzed from the chest down.

With her husband, Steve the two co-founded Access-4-All, Inc. with a mission to educate and empower others through motivational speaking and disability education. Katie has authored the children's book "Aunt Katie's Visit," (2003) and The Personal Care Attendant Guide, Demos Medical Publishing (2007).

Katie's honors include 2001 St. Louis Woman of Achievement; Missouri Jaycees 1998 Ten Outstanding Young Missourians; St. Louis Jaycees Jr. Chamber of Commerce 1995 Ten Outstanding Young St. Louisans; MO Governor's Council on Disability 1993 Advocate of the Year, and Kirkwood MO Jr. Miss 1982.

Katie is a dynamic speaker, author and consultant. (314) 481-0633. www.access-4-all.com